

JOSÉ IZQUIERDO, Deputy Director, International Cooperation and Legal Affairs Department, EUIPO, ES

José holds a Master Degree in European Community Law from the College of Europe, a Specialist Degree in Trade Marks and Designs from the University of Alicante, several PhD Courses in EU and American Law and a University Degree in Private Law from the University of Valencia.

In 1996, José initiated his professional career at the European Commission within DG Internal Market in the area of civil law.

In 2000, José joined EUIPO, initially as Assistant to the Director of the Designs Department, until 2007 when he became a Legal Adviser within the same department. At the same time, José was Secretary, and subsequently Chairman, of the Enlargement Task Force.

As from 2008, José moved into the field of cooperation at EUIPO as Head of Sector for the Special Cooperation Programmes. In 2011, he took up the role of Head of Service of Cooperation Programmes in the International Cooperation and Legal Affairs Department and in 2014 he was appointed Deputy Director of the International Cooperation Area, the position he currently holds today.