

DR. KATALIN SZAMOSI, ECTA Member, SBGK Attorneys at Law and Patent Attorneys, HU

Dr. Szamosi Katalin graduated from the Eötvös Lóránd University of Sciences, number one Law Faculty in Hungary in 1980.

During her professional career she has been awarded many times. She received the Eötvös Károly Award from the Presidency of the Budapest Bar Association in 2002 and an award for promoting competition culture of the Hungarian Competition Authority in 2008.

She is the President of the Board and Managing Partner of the SBGK Law Office.

She is one of the lawyers having the most experiences in litigation praxis on the field of economic, competition and intellectual property law.

She has been entrusted legal advisor for Swiss Embassy in Budapest since 1994.

She is the member of National Board Against Counterfeiting and the member of the board of Council of Hungarian Copyright Experts working within the Hungarian Intellectual Property Office. She is Arbitrator for cases involving Internet providers in Hungary and also arbitrator in domain disputes at the World Intellectual Property Office (WIPO), at the American National Forum Institute (ANF) and Czech Arbitration Court (CAC).

She has many publications, she is frequently speaker at professional conferences and she is guest professor at the Post Graduation Faculty of the Pázmány Péter Catholic University.